Custody Rights

The cultural and ethnic background of each parent is an essential factor in decisions to award custody of children where there is a mixed race, ethnic, or cultural parentage, but the paramount test is what is in the best interests of the children. Within the context of the controversial decision regarding former Vancouver Grizzly basketball team's Blue Edward's custody battle, Iven K.S. Tse discusses the significance of a court decision awarding custody where race and cultural identity were significant factors in this in this interview on VTV (now CTV) Breakfast Television.
